

Jean Monnet 2012 Grant 'Bridging the Gap: Improving EU Teaching'

Are you teaching EU-related topics to secondary school pupils?
Are you training teachers how to best teach EU integration?
Do you want refresh your curriculum and try out new teaching tools?

Then take advantage of the IES 2012 Jean Monnet "Bridging the Gap" grant!

The Educational Development Unit of the Institute for European Studies won a bid under the Lifelong Learning Programme/Jean Monnet Programme worth €60 000. The project falls under the "Learning EU in School" activities and is entitled "Bridging the Gap: Improving EU Teaching".

Join us to:

Increase your knowledge about the EU
Learn how to develop new and practical EU-related content
Try out innovative teaching tools and methods
Become familiar with the benefits of online and blended learning
Exchange best teaching practices with peers from all over Europe

Practical details

Brussels Workshops

14-15 May 2012
&
14-15 November 2012

2012 Webinars

27 March
24 May
13 June
20 September
22 November
17 December

The workshops will take place in Brussels, at the Institute for European Studies (IES), on Pleinlaan 5, floor -1. You can attend the webinars from wherever you are; all you need is a computer and an internet connection.

Participation in the workshops and webinars is free of charge and travel costs to and from Brussels, as well as accommodation costs in Brussels are covered.

About us

The Institute for European Studies (IES) at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB) advances academic education and research in various disciplines, and provides services to policy-makers, scholars, stakeholders and the general public.

The Educational Development Unit (EDU) is involved in a wide range of activities in the areas of teaching, training, e-learning and research.

Contact us

Find out more about the project and get the latest updates on our events at: <http://www.ies.be/training/bridging-the-gap>

Contact persons:

Alexandra Mihai
alexandra.mihai@vub.ac.be

Alina Christova
alina.christova@vub.ac.be

edu@ies.be